

Jump the Shark

Our series starts, and to so much hype
But a washed-up actor would know the signs
They see them all the time
Do I sense an emergent theme?
Are your twisted lies
Revealed by budget CGI?

Despite the absence of a narrative
You leave me hanging on
To find out how it ends
You've left me wondering
What am I viewing?
Another filler?
Or another end of season finale?

A rising star of the silver screen,
A shower scene, is it just a dream?
Maybe we'll see in season 3
Are we running out of steam?
Have we jumped the shark?
Gradual decline, have we lost that spark?

Despite the absence of a narrative
You leave me hanging on
To find out how it ends
You've left me wondering
What am I viewing?
Another filler?
Another end of season finale?

The final season with our lead in flight
Is this it? Is the end in sight?
Que sentimental song
Are we running out of steam?
Have we jumped the shark?
Gradual decline, have we lost that spark?

In the absence of a narrative
You kept me clinging on
To find out how it ends
You left me wondering
What am I doing?
But another side-quest,
Another end of season finale
