

Hiding to Nothing

Your best friends hate me
You run into their arms, oh oh
(Waiting in the wings)

How can I refuse
When you got me so confused, oh oh
(Need space to get away)

Fried chicken holds sway
When you take time away, oh oh
(Waist won't waste away)

Doing what you can
Love is slipping out your hands, oh oh
(Are you losing everything)

But I had you from the start
That's what she said
(That's what she said)

Now cigarettes to help us through
Or stay in bed

But I can't read you
So how can we see this thru
Or is it a hiding to nothing?

I can't heal you
So how can we see this thru
On a hiding to nothing

Throwing me a bone
Thought of going it alone, oh oh
(In fact, she's been and gone)

Dig out the guitar
While you work out who you are, oh oh
(Got to rock and roll with it)

Down on your knees
Years of trying hard to please, oh oh
(Where did it go wrong)

Junk food in bed
When you could fix your soul instead, oh oh
(Now you're losing everything)

But I had you from the start
That's what she said
(That's what she said)

Now cigarettes to help us through
Or stay in bed

But I can't read you
So how can we see this thru
Or is it a hiding to nothing?

I can't heal you
So how can we see this thru
On a hiding to nothing
